Andover Central School
Andover, New York

~ 1966 ~

Foreword

FOREWORD

Does this mean “go forward”? Well we’re hoping that this young gentleman has the power to coax you on. Even though this unusual guide, of unknown identity, will disappear when you turn the next page take the hint.

True, we have strived to expose mostly the lighter side of things ... On the other hand, as our time draws so near, we realize how indebted we are to that swell faculty who attempted to bring us to our senses. We urge you to fully enjoy the following edition of “Memoirs” and you too will see that we’re proud of our school!

Thanks A.C.S.

Bill Merrick, Editor

Memoirs of '66

Dedication

MISS AGNES TAYLOR

In order to show our immense appreciation to her for lending us a "helping hand" throughout our school years, especially in high school, we proudly dedicate this 1966 edition of Memoirs to Miss Agnes Taylor. We know Miss Taylor will always remain among our fondest memories of A.C.S.

TO OUR CLASS ADVISOR. . . . Diane E. Husted

To you, Miss Husted, we owe a great deal. We could not have asked for a more perfect class advisor. You've guided us superbly to our chief goal -- graduation. True, we met a few stumbling stones on the way but we made it. No one knows better than you how much our class loves fun and with you we've known great fun. We sincerely thank you for your time and effort and above all..... for your friendship.
